

PACTFilm Contact and Program Info: Downtown Eight week Introductory Project on Mondays and Thursdays 5pm – 7pm

General Info and Referrals: Ben Marshall 416-656-8824, ben@pactprogram.ca

Onsite Contacts: Andrew Frade, 416 999-9428, andrewfrade@icloud.com and Paul Davis, 416 906-3193, padstudios@gmail.com

Next Start Date: Monday Sept 25th, 2017

Time: 5:00 pm – 7:00 pm

Schedule/Duration: Each Session runs for eight weeks, 4 hours per week on Mondays and Thursdays plus occasional weekend shoot days, approximately 35 total instructional hours.

Project Address & Location: The downtown based PACTFilm program runs out of Artscape Youngplace at 180 Shaw St. in the lower level Sketch programming area. Artscape Youngplace is located half way between Dundas St. and Queen St. at Argyle St. in downtown Toronto.

Always call or text one of the onsite instructors Andrew Frade at 416 999-9428 or Paul Davis at 416 906-3193 before coming out on the first day to confirm the project is starting on that date or if you have trouble finding the program location.

Program Description: PACTFilm is an eight week introductory film program where youth will produce a short film or public service announcement (PSA) about important issues that impact their lives and/or positive forces in the community.

Public Transit: Artscape Youngplace is within close walking distance of several public transit stops: take the 501 Queen streetcar to Shaw Street and walk north to 180 Shaw St., or the 505 Dundas streetcar to Shaw St. and walk south to 180 Shaw St. or the #63 Ossington bus southbound from Ossington station on the Bloor subway line to Argyle Street and walk east (turn left) on Argyle to 180 Shaw St. See map for exact location:

